National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) Condemns Police Violence in San Bernardino, CA and Tulsa, OK

[Alexandria, VA] Our great country has once again experienced the violent actions of law enforcement officers in enforcing the law in the cases of Mr. Francis Pusok (San Bernardino, CA) and in the shooting death of Mr. Eric Harris (Tulsa, OK). The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) condemns this violence and will monitor the developments regarding these two incidents.

“It is important for me to express that we do not rush to judgment, but allow the San Bernardino, CA, and Tulsa, OK authorities to complete their investigations” stated Dr. Cedric L. Alexander, NOBLE National President.

ABOUT NOBLE

The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) serves as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 4,000 members worldwide, primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, tribal and criminal justice practitioners.
