National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) Applauds the Confirmation of Loretta Lynch as Attorney General

[Alexandria, VA] The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) applauds the U.S. Senate's confirmation of Loretta Lynch as the next Attorney General. Ms. Lynch has the qualifications, skills, and temperament to be an outstanding Attorney General. Additionally, Ms. Lynch has a breadth and depth of experience in public service, management, and leadership that will help make her an exceptional Attorney General.

Additionally, NOBLE would like to recognize and acknowledge the outgoing Attorney General, Eric Holder. We thank Mr. Holder for his outstanding leadership and stewardship of the Department of Justice for the past six years. "On behalf of the members of NOBLE, we wish Mr. Holder all the best in his future endeavors", stated Dr. Cedric L. Alexander, NOBLE National President.

ABOUT NOBLE

The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) serves as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 4,000 members worldwide, primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, tribal and criminal justice practitioners.
