National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) Condemns the Violence in Ferguson, MO

[Alexandria, VA] Our great country has once again experienced the violent actions of a few that have tarnished an otherwise peaceful protest. The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) condemns this violence that diminishes the positive steps being made to restore the community of Ferguson, MO. NOBLE stands committed to Interim Police Chief, Andre Anderson, and other officials as they work towards bridging the gap between law enforcement and the community.

About the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives

Since 1976, The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) has served as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 3,000 members internationally, who are primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners.
