National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) Condemns the Weekend of Violence Against Police

[Alexandria, VA] NOBLE joins the nation in condemning the weekend of violence that has claimed the lives of police officers in Brooklyn, New York and Tarpon Springs, FL. NOBLE sends its condolences and prayers to the families of officers: Rafael Ramos and Wenjian Liu of the New York City Police Department and Charles Kondek of the Tarpon Springs Police Department.

“The law enforcement men and women, who serve and protect our communities, risk their lives every single day. This weekend three officers have made the ultimate sacrifice in the performance of their duties. I along with the entire nation send my heartfelt condolences and salute them and their families”, stated Dr. Cedric L. Alexander, NOBLE National President.

ABOUT NOBLE

The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) serves as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 4,000 members nationwide, primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners.
