National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) 38th Annual Training Conference & Exhibition Attracted Local, National, and International Leaders

[Alexandria, VA] The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) held its 38th Annual Training Conference and Exhibition on July 12-16, 2014, in Grand Rapids, MI, drawing leaders from across the world that encompassed law enforcement, corporate, government, education, civic, and entertainment industries. Nearly 1,000 attendees participated in training workshops, youth leadership training, business meetings, regional caucuses, plenaries, community outreach, and award celebrations.

NOBLE thanks the following 2014 training conference partners: Amway Grand Plaza Hotel, Appriss, Engility, Galls, Grand Rapids Convention and Visitors Bureau, Harris, Motorola, PepsiCo, PredPol, TASER, University of Phoenix, and Verizon. NOBLE also thanks its staff, members, volunteers, and host committee for helping to ensure a successful 38th Annual Training Conference & Exhibition.

A highlight of this year's conference was the installation of the NOBLE 2014-2014 Executive Board, led by Dr. Cedric L. Alexander, National President, and the introduction of NOBLE's new Executive Director, Dwayne A. Crawford.

"On behalf of our NOBLE executive board, chapter members, and the hundreds of communities we serve, we want to thank Grand Rapids, MI for co-hosting an outstanding Training Conference," stated Dr. Cedric L. Alexander, NOBLE National President. "We now set our sights for the great city of Indianapolis, IN that will be the host site of the 39th Annual Training Conference, July 11-15, 2015, at the JW Marriott."

"The Greater Indianapolis Chapter of NOBLE (GICN) commends the local chapter in Grand Rapids, MI on hosting an outstanding conference; and, extends a warm welcome to all members and supporters of NOBLE to the City of Indianapolis as it hosts the 39th Annual Training Conference and Exhibition," stated Bruce Henry, GICN Chapter President. "NOBLE members and supporters can look forward to another outstanding opportunity to learn and network with law enforcement leaders from around the world as we advance the goal of inclusion and achieving diversity in law enforcement in July 2015."

ABOUT NOBLE

The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) serves as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 3,000 members nationwide, primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners.
