National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) 13th Anniversary of the 9/11 Terrorist Attacks

[Alexandria, VA] The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) joins the nation in commemorating the 13th Anniversary of the 9/11 Terrorist Attacks. NOBLE recognizes and honors the many men and women of first responders who paid the ultimate sacrifice on that fateful day 13 years ago. As a leader in the law enforcement community, NOBLE was and is proud of the leadership and commitment to service that was displayed by its members and the greater population of public servants and U.S. citizens.

"On behalf of our NOBLE executive board, chapter members, and the hundreds of communities we serve, we want to acknowledge and thank the men and women who courageously performed feats of heroism as the nation responded to the terrorist acts of 9/11", stated Dr. Cedric L. Alexander, NOBLE National President.

ABOUT NOBLE

The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) serves as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 4,000 members nationwide, primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners.
