National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives expresses condolences and vows vigilance in the wake of Today's shootings in Alexandria, Virginia and San Francisco, California

Washington, DC – In the wake of today's shootings in Alexandria, Virginia and San Francisco, California, NOBLE's National President, Assistant Chief Perry Tarrant stated: "As the nation's largest organization of African American law enforcement executives, we here at the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) are deeply saddened by today's shootings in Alexandria, VA and San Francisco, CA. Our thoughts and prayers are with the victims and their families.

We especially want to commend the bravery of our fellow law enforcement officers who were injured and the first responders involved at all levels. NOBLE's commitment to justice by action remains steadfast."
