

(Springfield, IL) – The Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police \(ILACP\) and the Illinois NAACP State Conference announced a resolution of shared principles that are designed to bridge the gap of mistrust between police and communities of color. The first of its kind in our nation's history, the agreement between a NAACP state conference and a statewide law enforcement agency identifies the common ground between local law enforcement and communities of color in their commitment to and passion for defending civil rights and keeping communities safe.
