The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives National President Perry Tarrant Visits Portland, Oregon May 9, 2017

ALEXANDRIA, VA– The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) National President, Perry Tarrant, is visiting the city of Portland, Oregon to meet with the local NOBLE chapter, the mayor of Portland, and various civic and community leaders. He is being joined by Cindy Rodriguez, National President, National Latino Peace Officers Association (NLPOA).

The purpose of the visit is to engage in meetings aimed at addressing concerns related to minority police officer promotion, recruitment, and retention. Secondly, there will be an emphasis on exploring partnership opportunities aimed at strengthening the relationship between the community and law enforcement.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF BLACK LAW ENFORCEMENT EXECUTIVES

Since 1976, The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) has served as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 3,000 members internationally, who are primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners.
