PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

December 22, 2017

The Attorney Benjamin Crump Social Justice Institute and the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) to offer National Certificate Courses for the Disproportionate Minority Contact with Police Initiative Program

“Education is a Cornerstone of Justice”

ALEXANDRIA, VA - The NOBLE Center for Excellence will serve as an official Community Policing Certification e-learning (CEU-POST) state of the art content hub for Law Enforcement Officers from across the globe to enhance building relationships between law enforcement and the community.

To further boost the capacity of the NOBLE Center for Excellence, we have partnered with the Attorney Benjamin Crump Social Justice Institute to make course content accessible in multiple platforms through a licensed online self-paced learning Virtual Campus system that is accessible 24/7/365 days a year allowing law enforcement departments or individual officers of the law to take courses through a digital live streaming television channel, mobile app, and a 21st Century Avatar virtual reality simulations that can activate on any mobile device, tablet or personal computer.

Attorney Benjamin Crump, Founder and CEO of BCSJI said “these are challenging times in our country, particularly communities of color. The partnership with NOBLE and its 3,000 law enforcement members along with its 60,000 youth will serve as the educational foundation that will further enable us to build positive relationships between the community and law enforcement. Crump goes further saying, and we are even more excited that Benjamin Crump Social Justice Institute serves as the official exclusive 21st Century Community Policing POST-Certified-Continuing Education Credit Nationwide online program in partnership with Mr. Omar Neal, CEO, Founder of the You Got the Power organization. Mr. Neal is a former executive law enforcement officer and Mayor of Tuskegee, Alabama.”

“NOBLE is very excited and honored to be launching the NOBLE Center for Excellence. This is another step towards providing critical training to the law enforcement community and the nation,” stated Clarence E. Cox, III, NOBLE National President.

The NOBLE Center for Excellence Institute will open enrollment for all members beginning December 26, 2017. Click here to begin your selection of a program.
