The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) Honors Military Veterans

[Alexandria, VA] In recognition of Veterans Day, The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) would like to thank our military veterans and their families for their service.

"Much like law enforcement, our soldiers put their lives on the line every day to defend the lives of American citizens," said NOBLE National President Vera Bumpers. "Today, and every day, our veterans deserve to be honored and remembered for the sacrifices they make protecting our freedoms at home and abroad."

About the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives

Since 1976, The National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) has served as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action. NOBLE represents over 3,000 members internationally, who are primarily African-American chief executive officers of law enforcement agencies at federal, state, county and municipal levels, other law enforcement administrators, and criminal justice practitioners.
